Still more unfortunate in its results was the total failure of these separate attacks on the right and left to sustain, or in any manner to co-operate with each other. There are two hills on the left of the road, the farthest and lowest. The rebels have batteries on both. Burnside is ordered to carry the nearest to him, which is the farthest from the road. His guns opened first from this new position in front, mor entirely controlled and silenced the entiry artillery. The infantry came on at once, movio rapidly and steadily up long, dark lanes, and broad dark recesses, being plainly visible without a glass as they moved over the green hill-side.

BURYING THE DEAD.

THE REBELS FALLING BACK.

An important morement of McClei lan not yet developed.

ALL QUIET AT HARPERS FERRY.

The Rebels completely demoralized and descriing.

NEW YORK, SEPT. 22. The Heralds special from Frederick 21st 10 p. m. says: A dispatch dated opposite Shephards town this noon says everything is quiet there to-day .-During last night there was considerable firing be tween our pickets and those of the enemy on the opposite side of the river. At six o'clock this morning quite a number of the enemy supposed to be a brigade showed themselves on the opposite bluff and fired a volley of musketry into our Artillery

Our batteries, Caple, Waterman, Martins, and Hagletts, soon opened and concentrated a fire on the rebels causing them to disappear. The enemy have no artillery on the bluff. This forenoon a flag of truce was sent over the river asking permission to bury our dead which was granted. The belief is that the enemy must be out of artillery ammuni tion from their not responding to our guns.

For some time there has not been a rebel seen on the opposite bank and it is thought they have all fallen back. It would not be proper to state the disposition or movements of our forces bu probably important news may be expected from Gen. McClellan's Army within a day or two.

Officers from Gen. Conch's Division who left Harpers Ferry at 10 this forenoon report everything quiet there and no signs of rebel forces. Large numbers of rebel soldiers are secreted about the mountains and many are surrendering them selves to our offices.

The rebel army appears completely demoralized and in process of dispersion. The day passed very quietly here.

Numbers of wounded continue to pass through m route for the north. It is believed by citizen: here that the rebels lost at least five thousand men by desertion during their raid into Maryland .-Scarcely sufficient recruits were obtained to form a colapsoy.

WHIPING THEM IN VIRGINIA.

New York, 22, The Tribune correspondent, asserts on reliable testimony that two thousand rebals were captured Saturday. Our troops crossed the Potomac in large force and were fighting on the other side, firing not having ceased Saturday at midnight. The rest of the army had advanced to the river. In fighting so far we had decidedly the advantage.

WILLIAMSPORT OCCUPTED BY THE FEDERALS.

The Times special dispatch states that the 118th Pa., lost 140 killed and 120 wounded in a reconnoisance Saturday, being part of the force under acling Brig. Barnes.

On Saturday the enemy crossed at Williamsport ut were driven back by the advance of our army assisted by the Penn. Militia. The attack at Black ford Fords disturbing their movements. Williamsport is now occupied by us in strong force. The rebels hoped in crossing here to turn McClellans right flank but failed. Gov. Curtin has withdrawn the Militia into Penn.

CROSSING THE RIVER.

The Herald gives the following as the force under acting Brigadier Gen. Barnes, in Saturday's fight :-- 18th Mass:-- 2d Maine- 25th New York 118th Pennsylvania, and 5th and 10th New York regiments of Gen. Sykes corps. All the men behaved splendidly. Hearing the connonading and not knowing but a general engagement might ensue, part of the regiments came harrying towards the river.

Close by the river and directly opposite Shepherdstown was Gen. Griffins Brigade, every moment expecting Gen. Morell would order them across the river. Gen. Sykes also went across the river with the Regts, attached to his command and during the battle was prominent in the thickest of the fight.

The firing heard was principally from rabel gons.

During the night they re-crossed into Virginia and this a. m., had disappeared from the opposite shore. No one was hurt. The work of burring the dead still continues --- the average about a thousand per day. To-morrow will probably finish it Maryland heights were resterday occupied by
